

Flash Talk Score Sheet

Rules: Each presenter is expected to give a concise and well-practiced introduction and a description of their research and future research interests, a Flash Talk. The moderator will stand at the 3 minute mark and the presenter should wrap-up in 15 seconds. If not the moderator will terminate the presentation. Each presenter may use up to 2 power point slides.

Prizes: There will be 2 prizes awarded for each room. One determined from mentor score sheets and one determined from attendees score sheets. There will also be a single CBI Program winner (University) determined from mentor score sheets of all four rooms.

Instructions for Scoring: Presentations are scored for each of the following categories.

- A. Engagement (0-3 points): Did you want to learn more? Did the presenter convey enthusiasm? Did the speaker have sufficient stage presence, eye contact, and vocal range; maintain a steady pace?
- B. Comprehension (0-3 points): Did you have a clear understanding of the subject? Did the presentation clearly describe the key points? Did the presenter avoid jargon, explain terminology?
- C. Content (0-3 points): Was the talk in language appropriate to an intelligent person – but not a specialist in the field? Adequate time on each element? Did the PowerPoint slide enhance the presentation?
- D. Creativity (0-1 point): Did the presenter employ creative elements in the presentation?

We encourage everyone to fill out a score sheet. Please draw a line through your own name. All score sheets will be kept private – no scoring totals will be distributed.
